

Theresa Lynn Blakley is a member of All Saints Anglican Church in Jackson, TN. She loves God, loves the Word of God and is an avid follower of Jesus! She has a Ph.D from Barry University, Miami, and Is a professor emeritus of social work, having just retired from Union University after teaching for 18 years. She has also served as a licensed clinical social worker with a specialty in psychopathology, and traumatic grief and loss, especially from human-perpetrated violence. Theresa is an active member of The Order of St. Luke the Physician, having taught and presented with this organization. She facilitates the healing prayer team at her church, the primary focus of her current ministry. Theresa has been in the process of discernment for the diaconate at her church, with ordination expected in June, 2023.

PRESENTATION:

Really. Truly. Passionately:
What does it mean to C O N T I N U E in Christ?